Dear Parents

Day Boarding schools give children the perspective on building self-confidence, self-discipline, independent approach, the capacity to interact with adults and fellow students and to be a successful team member. It is a safe and nurturing place for children as the students remain in the school for extended hours and are provided with meals. They also participate in various curricular and non-curricular activities with peers under the guidance of teachers at school.

"With this aim in mind, MGD offers Optional Day Boarding facility for Classes VII to IX which will begin from July 3, 2023."

The schedule for Optional Day Boarding Classes VII to IX is given below for your reference.
